PRESS RELEASE

Wichita-Sedgwick County Historical Museum Presents "Blue Moon at the Museum"

Wichita, Kan., April 3, 2014 – On Saturday, April 26, 2014, the Wichita-Sedgwick County Historical Museum will hold its sixth annual "Blue Moon at the Museum" party from 7 – 10 p.m. The event will transform the Museum into the original Blue Moon Nightclub, which was located on South Oliver during the 1940s and 50s. The club was a popular gathering spot for adults to dine and dance to the nation's most famous orchestras. Guests will enjoy dinner, dancing, and music from renowned jazz singer Donna Tucker.

The event kicks off the Wichita-Sedgwick County Historical Museum's 75th Anniversary and features a special exhibit "The Future of Your History - the 75th anniversary of the Historical Museum". Guests also have the opportunity to enjoy the 24 other exhibits on all four floors of the 1890 City Hall Building.
