41st Annual Wreath Festival at the Historical Museum
November 21-23, 2024 @ 11am-4pm
Admission FREE
Open to the public
Lunch Available for Purchase

Enjoy holiday cheer, music, and a wonderful destination for holiday gift buying. The Museum's Store is transported to the 2nd floor DeVore Auditorium, where holiday shoppers are sure to be dazzled by an array of artful hand-crafted wreaths, décor items, baked goods, cards, books, and unique gift items. The festival takes place 11am to 4pm Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. With holiday cheer and music filling the air, you'll surely want to bring your friends and family!

A carryout lunch, featuring cranberry chicken salad over greens, with croissant and dessert will be available for $16. The museum will have limited seating inside with additional seating in Heritage Square, weather permitting. Place your lunch order by calling or emailing the museum- (316) 265-9314; wschm@wichitahistory.org. Drop-ins welcome!

While at the Museum, take in the special holiday exhibits with Christmas at Old City Hall! The Historical Museum offers a little extra cheer during the holiday season with the Moore Family Santa Collection, Macy's animatronic Santa, the popular annual Miniature Trees Collection, and Christmas décor in the Victorian Cottage.

Thank you to our volunteers, the Friends of the Museum, for sponsoring this event!
