School's out for Winter Break and The Wichita-Sedgwick County Historical Museum invites you for two Sundays of all-ages tours and activities! Each of December's Winter Programs will include a tour of a different area of the museum as well as a take-home craft.

Sunday, December 22: Christmas Trees

Have you ever seen so many Christmas trees in one place? Join us for a tour of our Miniature Christmas Tree Exhibit and explore the history of holiday trees. Create your own ornament to take home and add to your own seasonal décor!

Sunday, December 29: Victorian Winter

Come explore the winter months through the eyes of the Victorians. Enjoy a tour of the Wichita Cottage decorated for the holidays, and discover the Victorian family's responsibilities when the weather outside is frightful. Learn how to make an articulated doll like a Victorian child may have!

All programs are FREE admission and open to the public. Tours are offered 30 minutes after the hour (1:30pm, 2:30pm, & 3:30pm). No reservation necessary; come-and-go between 1-4pm each day for a family activity they are sure to remember! (Recommended Age: 5 and up)
